Please use the reference format above to ensure that your membership can be processed swiftly. For the purposes of facilitating payment for events and events planning and management, we will process your personal information. This may include, but is not limited to, your name, email address (or other contact details that you have provided to us), job title (as applicable), years PQE, and bank account details. Such information may be retained by the Nottinghamshire Junior Lawyers Division ("NJLD") so long as you are a member and will be deleted on you ceasing to be a member where you have not explicitly asked to be added to our mailing list. Where our events are co-hosted with sponsors, including law firms and recruiters, they may ask for your personal details for networking or other purposes. Where you choose to share such personal information, you do so by your own choice. The personal information you share with the NJLD will never be shared with third parties without your prior written consent (with the exception of photos taken at our events, which are to be shared on our social media). If you have any questions in relation to how we process your personal information, please contact Ella Royle at ella.royle@brownejacobson.com.
